Year 10 had the opportunity on Tuesday the 25th April to attend the London South East College Bromley Career Fair. London South East Colleges is a selective A Level centre for excellence, offering a wide range of A Level courses aimed at high achieving students. LSEC has been rated as 'good with outstanding features' by Ofsted and named Further Education College of the Year and Overall Further Education Provider of the Year in 2021. They hosted the Careers Fair with a variety of employers/providers attending the Fair, such as TfL, CITB, Loughborough University, The London College of Beauty, the Royal Navy, and different vocational industries.

The event will provide students with the opportunity to engage with as many employers, training providers and FE/HE colleges as possible, to enable young people to explore career and learning pathways. As seen by the picture below with the Metropolitan Police team.

Students have already emailed providers and found additional experiences for the summer holidays, including various work placements and University stays. Year 10 were a credit to St Paul's Academy and represented them in a positive light at the event.
